If the delay exceeds two hours, we will take you to a restaurant close by to wait there instead of the airport. You must aim to arrive at 6 pm. If you are unable to match this time, we can organise a separate taxi for you at a nominal extra charge. The drive up to Shillong is hilly - this is for your information in case you are prone to car sickness.
June 17, 2016 Friday Day 2	Day trip to Cherrapunji and the Double Decker Living Root Bridge Walk Early start today. Leave the accommodation after a heavy breakfast. There are two programmes that go on simultaneously - only possible if the group size is big enough for more than one car. Programme 1: Double Decker Living Root Bridge walk Not for the unfit - this walk covers 7 km of steps. 3.5 km and about 3500 steps each way. The end result - a bridge built by the local Khasis, over 200 years ago, using the living roots of a tree. A truly marvellous sight and worth all the effort in the steps you have just climbed down [and the 3500 steps up that await you on the way back!]. There is also a water pool for you to take a short dip if you'd like to cool off. You can read more about this walk on our blog - link in the body of this email Programme 2: A tour of Cherrapunji Cherrapunji, once the wettest area in the world is a geographic wonder - cliffs, caves, hills, lush greenery, water falls and clouds that will just thrill you. Spend the day exploring all these wonders. You can read more about things to do in Cherrapunji on our blog Both groups meet up in the evening to exchange notes of their experiences. Don't worry - if you can't do the whole 7,000 steps but you still want to see a living root bridge, you can do that day after in a much shorter walk.	Includes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Transport from the accommodation to the living root bridge start point and back, and transport from accommodation to Cherrapunji and back</li> <li>2. Accommodation cost - twin sharing</li> <li>3. Breakfast at the accommodation</li> <li>4. Guide for the walk and another for Cherrapunji</li> </ol> Doesn't include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Lunch, dinner, snacks and extra orders</li> <li>2. Entrance fees and tickets to the various places that you visit - usually very nominal costs</li> </ol>	We recommend the folks doing the root bridge walk carry some salty and sweet snacks and water for the walk. Don't bother carrying too much - there are a few small shops towards the halfway point that will give you tea, maggi, chips and biscuits - more than enough to energise you for the walk back. The more you carry, the harder it gets. For the folks going to Cherrapunji, the guide will meet you right after breakfast and brief you on the route and then your trip begins. You will be able to go to a restaurant for lunch along the way
June 18, 2016 Saturday Day 3	Explore Shillong After a hectic day, you get to have a relaxed start this morning. Have breakfast at the accommodation and then we head to the Don Bosco Museum which is an incredible way to learn about the entire north east in one building - a seven floor museum. There's something there for everyone, including a cafe to have some coffee at for the ones who hate museums. We then take you Shillong peak to get a marvellous view of Shillong. Alternatively - some of you could head off for a trek - the David Scott's trek - arguably the best trek in Meghalaya - but you must be ready for a wet trek! The trek is 15 km long, so this isn't an easy one. [again - multiple options are only possible if the group size is large enough to have more than one car] You can use the rest of the day to walk around the shopping areas of the town. This is your last day to do any shopping	Includes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Transport from the accommodation to the museum and then to Shillong Peak and to the David Scott trail point for those interested and then the car gets you back to the accommodation. For your shopping needs, it is best to use local taxis and they can take you to the right places faster than our big cabs will.</li> <li>2. Accommodation cost - twin sharing</li> <li>3. Breakfast at the accommodation</li> <li>4. Guide for the David Scott trail</li> </ol> Doesn't include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Lunch, dinner, snacks and extra orders</li> <li>2. Entrance fees and tickets to the various places that you visit - usually very nominal costs</li> </ol>	Read more about Shillong on our website. Do not miss the Don Bosco Museum - it is really the best way to get a lot of information about the North East - Anthropology, History, Textiles, Tools, Music, Culture etc.
